Parent Refusal Form For Military Recruiter Information Requests

All public schools are currently required by federal law to give students' names, addresses, and phone numbers to military recruiters unless a parent makes a formal request that this information not be released. North Carolina schools usually receive several requests from military recruiters for release of this kind of "directory information" each school year.

By signing and returning this form you are indicating that you do not want any information about your child to be released automatically to military recruiters. After you have signed this form, military recruiters can access your child's "directory information" only if (1) you are contacted personally, and (2) you provide written permission at that time.

Please DO NOT RELEASE MY CHILD'S "DIRECTORY INFORMATION" to military recruiters unless I am contacted personally and then provide written permission.
